Roaix

Les Crottes

Origin : Old Grenache and young Syrah vines planted on the site called Les Crottes (de Grottes = cavern) in the commune of Roaix (situated between Rasteau and Seguret) ancient Templar vineyards dating from the 12th Century.

Grape Varieties : 80% Grenache, 20% Syrah.

Production process : The whole harvest is picked at its optimum maturity, with a long temperature controlled fermentation and soft extraction.

Ageing process : In old wood with a small dose of sulphur, bottled without filtration.

Soils : Sand and grit.
